

During this phase we control the project handover together with the architect and prepare the project completion report.

We will also assist the quantity surveyor in the preparation of the final account and supervise the release of retention funds, as well as obtain all necessary guarantees and maintenance manuals.

Lastly, we will assist with the issuing of the completion and occupation certificates.

